Cadigan Co-Authors Chapter on Federal Campaign Finance and Disclosure, Practice Handbook on Election Law Published By Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education

October, 2007-- William J. Cadigan, principal of the Law Office of William J. Cadigan, P.C. recently served as a co-author of the update to the Practice Handbook on Election Law Published By Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE). Mr. Cadigan's chapter is titled Federal Campaign Finance and Disclosure.

The focus of this chapter is to identify the federal laws and regulations applicable to the financing and operation of campaigns for federal office, and to the extent that they are applicable, to campaigns for state and local office. The chapter also explores the issues directly applicable to candidates and committees, such as acceptable contributions, appropriate expenditures, and reporting requirements. In addition, the chapter discusses the regulations applicable to participation in the political process by other entities such as political action committees, political parties, corporations, labor unions, and individuals.

William J. Cadigan has extensive experience in the political arena and advises candidates and business organizations of all sizes on compliance with state and federal election laws. He has represented clients in compliance actions brought by the Federal Election Commission and served as a hearing officer for the Illinois State Board of Elections and Chicago Board of Election Commissioners.
